HELPING HANDS RECEIVES $4,125 IN FUNDING FROM THE ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Winsted, CT – October 1, 2025 – Helping Hands Chore Service is pleased to announce it has been awarded a $4,125 grant from the Archbishop's Annual Appeal through its Vicariate Outreach Program. This funding will directly support Helping Hands' mission to provide affordable, in-home care services for local seniors and individuals with disabilities, enabling them to live safely and independently in their own homes. "Helping Hands is committed to enhancing the daily living and quality of life of older adults," said Director Irene Connole. "We are deeply grateful for this award, which allows us to continue serving our community with care and compassion."

Helping Hands is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, community-based organization founded in 2006 to support the homemaker and companion needs of seniors. For more information about Helping Hands and its services, please visit www.helpinghandschoreservice.org or call 860-379-4900.

About the Archbishop Annual Appeal

Since 1981, the Archbishop's Annual Appeal has supported individuals and families across the Archdiocese of Hartford, regardless of race, religion, or background. Through health care, education, housing, emergency assistance, and more, the Appeal has made a significant difference in the lives of countless people. Its Vicariate Outreach Program provides grants to community-based charities throughout Hartford, New Haven, and Litchfield Counties, made possible through the generosity of donors.
